

Andrei Gunin to leave ROLF Group of Companies

Moscow – 18th November 2010 – The ROLF Group, Russia’s leading automotive business informs that Andrei Gunin, Chief Operating Officer, will be leaving the Company to develop his career in another business area.

Andrei joined the ROLF team in 2004 as Financial Director and was appointed as Chief Financial Officer of ROLF Group in January 2006. Subsequent to that, Andrei was appointed Chief Operating Officer in 2008.

Andrei has contributed significantly in building ROLF's relationships with the financial markets and for overseeing the Group's successful refinancing in 2009.

“Andrei is a true professional who has made a substantial contribution to ROLF's financial strength and commercial success in recent years, - remarks Nick Hawkins, Chief Executive Officer of ROLF Group. – I would like to record my personal thanks to Andrei for all of his accomplishments at ROLF”.

Andrei’s current areas of responsibility will be largely taken over by Anthony Sacca in his capacity as Chief Financial Officer of ROLF Group.
