Rolf to launch exclusive tuning line of Mitsubishi cars

- Partnership with CRD of Germany
- Portfolio to include Galant, L-200, Lancer, Outlander, Pajero
- Launch at 2008 Moscow Motorshow

Moscow (27 March 2008) - The Rolf Group, Russia's leading automotive business, today announced it will launch an exclusive line of tuned Mitsubishi cars, initially for the Russian market.

Rolf has entered into an exclusive partnership with CRD (Car Research and Development GmbH & Co. KG), which is member of the world renowned German BRABUS Group. CRD is specialised in tuning and accessory programs and has long time market experience as well as an excellent international reputation.

The portfolio will include the Mitsubishi Galant, Mitsubishi L-200, Mitsubishi Lancer, Mitsubishi Outlander and Mitsubishi Pajero. All vehicles will feature an individual interior and exterior design that adds to the key features of the current Mitsubishi line-up and is aimed exclusively at the Russian buyer.

The cars will be launched at the Moscow International Motorshow, which will be open for the public from 28 August until 1 September 2008.

Dmitry Rotkin, CEO of Rolf Import:

"We are excited to have won CRD as a partner for this unique project and look forward to providing our customers with a line of Mitsubishi cars that will be truly unique. We see this tuning range as a symbol of Mitsubishi's success story in Russia, and as a token of our commitment to deliver maximum performance for our customers."

"Peter Strasburger, Executive Vice President of CRD GmbH:

"My team and I are proud to have been asked by Rolf Group to commence this extraordinary project. The first designs look very promising and we are certain the cars will be well received. Expect something special."
